

Learner Drivers Study Group

Having a learners permit and learning to drive has a big impact on people's work and study options, but the biggest outcomes are the sorts of things you can't see like increased confidence, self-awareness and self-respect.

- The course gives you the opportunity to build a sense of achievement that will have a flow on effect into other areas of your life.
- Having a drivers license can open up job opportunities, improve your social life and generally reduce stress.
- Using a range of strategies to engage with different learning styles, the study group is the best vehicle to achieve your goals and get you behind the wheel.
- We will workshop road rules in a practical sense, with models and with assisted technology, to ensure you have a thorough understanding.
- This class will be a study group to achieve your learners permit.
